

Home Study Services Only

For Domestic and International Adoptions

Family Resource Center Home Study Fee

$3,500*

- Fee includes up to four post placement visits (for one child) following placement. For two or more children each visit will be assessed an additional $100. Additional post visits beyond the initial four are $280 for the first child and $100 for each additional child, per visit.
- Fees include all education and training sessions attended at FRC.
- For individuals with imminent, pending adoptions, expedited home study service is available for an additional $750.
- For subsequent home studies through FRC, a Home Study Update fee of $3,150 is charged and submission of a new application is required.
- FRC can complete both a domestic and an international home study at the same time for an additional $350.
- Please note, state and federal authorities take the position that home studies are no longer valid after significant change in the family composition. Therefore, should your family composition change, either through the adoption or the birth of a child, you will be required have a home study update completed. An update is also required if a family moves, changes countries, etc. (fees range from $350 to $600)
- Potential adoptive parents are responsible for their own attorney's fee and court costs.
